Your November Message From Attorney Paul Hernandez

Holiday Phishing Scams to Watch For This Season

If you're waiting for an update on your personal injury claim, a text that appears to come from your insurance adjuster can get your attention fast. It might say a payment is ready and ask you to click a link to confirm your bank details. During the holidays, when your phone is already buzzing with delivery alerts and order updates, it's easy to tap before checking who sent the message.
